

ROUND TOWN

Attend the Fourth of July celebration at Rainier.

Mr. Magnus Saxon and wife started Wednesday for California. Mrs. Saxon has been in poor health lately and it is thought the change of climate will benefit her. Miss Lola Clear accompanies them to visit her mother.

Did every dollar you spent this month give you adequate returns? Could you have saved some of them? The Columbia County Bank will be glad to help you save.

Yesterday was the last day that the Nehalem mail went into the valley by way of Houlton. Today, Friday, the first day of July, the route is to be changed and the mail will pass through Clatskanie and Mist. There seems to be but little doubt that the route just abandoned is the most satisfactory, but perhaps the government will change the routes in the lower valley so as to improve the service.

Ten horse engine and two boilers for sale cheap. Inquire of J.S. WATSON, Warren, Oregon.

Northwestern Oregon Forest Fire Association has been organized with the following directors: P. S. Brumbach, Geo. McLeod, John Pearson, C. H. Wheeler, Geo. Keizer, C. K. Gamble and Minot Davis. Mr. J. G. Bailey, editor of the Cathlamet Sun, left a "Hello" Card at the Mist office last Sunday. Mr. Bailey was one of the Cathlamet rosters at the ball game no doubt, and we will probably meet when the return game is played at Cathlamet.

SEWING MACHINE FOR SALE—Inquire at this office.

Paints, oils, varnish, nails, shell hardware, screws and bolts—all kinds of builder's material at the store of Jas. Muckle & Son.

Next Monday we will all celebrate at Rainier. Our boys play the Rainier nine, and whenever they cross bats there is plenty to interest the fans. Aside from the ball game there will be the usual program in the morning, including an oration by Hon. Grant Dimick, at present County Judge of Clackamas County and a live candidate for the office of Governor of Oregon.

Mrs. J. M. Lockwood is visiting friends in Portland and will be away from St. Helens for a month or six weeks, taking a well earned rest from her duties as chef of the St. Helens hotel.

If you owed the grocer a dollar Saturday night you would pay it. Make believe that you owe it to your old age. Deposit it in the Columbia County Bank, the oldest bank in the county it will grow there.

THREE DIVORCE CASES—The case of Lula R. vs. S. J. Boyd was decided in the circuit court last Tuesday. Mrs. Boyd being given a decree of divorce, with the custody of Estella and Paul. Mr. Boyd was given conditional custody of Violet, he to provide for her a good home and not take her outside of the State. The trial of the case occupied two days and was quite sensational. It developed that during 19 years of married life the Boyds had moved thirty eight times. Several of the witnesses belong to the sect known as Holy Rollers, and there was considerable testimony as to their practices. Mary Butts was given a divorce from her husband B. C. Butts, together with the custody of two minor children and $25 per month alimony. Testimony showed that Butts abused her in many ways, calling her vile names, striking and kicking her. In Arnold v. Arnold a decree by default was given the plaintiff.

Another month has gone from the year of 1910. Has it availed you anything? How much have you saved of your salary? Not much you made; but how much have you saved. The Columbia County Bank helps savers.

PREPARATIONS FOR BIG CELEBRATION—Get a new Suit, Hat and Shoes from Wellington.

Misses Anne and Susie Ketel and Elsie Phillips started Tuesday for a two or three weeks visit to the homebodies of the Ketel boys, in the White Salmon country.

We call attention to the water notice published in this issue. The board trusts that all consumers will be careful in their use of the water, as otherwise there is liable to be a shortage during the hot weather. Before the middle of August the new supply will be available and there will be an abundance for all purposes.

The St. Helens post office is now third class and international money orders may be issued or cashed here.

QUITE A CHANGE—A little over a year ago if you wanted to go to the depot you walked, now you can ride in a ten passenger automobile. The editor was one of a party to enjoy a ride from Portland to St. Helens last Saturday in the new horseless wagon of the St. Helens Transfer Company, and it is surely proof that they have great faith in the town that they have invested a large sum in such a conveyance. In addition to the run to the train the auto will be able to make short trips to the country and to and from the baseball grounds.

FOR SALE—Eggs for hatching. C. S. Brown Leghorns; S. C. Black Minorcas; S. C. Barred Rocks. Market eggs at market price. Yards opposite wireless station. W. C. MORLEY, Houlton, Oregon, Box 97.

Full blood yearling Jersey bull for sale by C. J. Larson, Warren.

St. Helens is getting to be a favorite place for Portland autoists to visit and there would be many more if Multnomah County would put its roads in decent condition. From St. Helens to the county line there is an excellent auto road, but as soon as you cross into Multnomah it is different and worse. Some of the bumps you get between Rocky Point and Linton are fearful.

Mr. and Mrs. Percy George, of Portland, visited over Sunday with Mr. George's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. H. George.

Mrs. Ansoorge and her daughter, Mrs. J. W. Day, were Portland visitors Tuesday.

Miss Lula George returned last Saturday night from a visit to the Yellowstone Park. Miss George taught school at Pendleton this past year and it has been some time since she has been in St. Helens.

It is a shame to have as nice a building as the Court House disfigured the way it is. That nine o'clock is a joke to every one and the plaster is nearly all off one of the pillars on the front porch. A little new plaster and a coat of paint on the "clock" in the cupola would help appearances immensely. There has been some talk of a clock, but we are informed that one that would be worth putting in would cost many times more than it would be worth to the community.

FOR SALE—A good Smith-Premier Typewriter. A bargain. Columbia County Abstract Co.

300 ACRE RANCH TO LEASE—First class dairy ranch. Inquire at the Mist office.

FOR SALE—A new gasoline launch, 5 1/2 horse power. Inquire at this office.

Oswald Denning met with a very serious and painful accident last Sunday at the base ball grounds. He caught his foot in the gear on the livery company's new automobile bus, and had his toes severely crushed. While one of them may yet be amputated, it is very likely that it will not be necessary.

When you buy clothes you might as well get the best. It does not cost any more if you go to Wellington's to get them. You are always sure of Satisfaction when you go there.

George Grant, of Scappoose, recently sold to parties at Holbrook what he believes to have been the best team in Columbia County. The consideration was $700.00.

HORSES FOR SALE—Light and heavy horses for sale at the Scappoose Livery Stable.

Perhaps it is not the clothes that make the man; nevertheless the man who wears clothes that come from Wellington's is a well-dressed man. Your enjoyment of the Fourth of July will be increased fourfold if you feel that you have on neat, up-to-date clothes.

Mrs. W. Potts and daughter, Mrs. Fellows, spent several days this week and last in St. Helens.

Miss Bessie Darch returned to her home on Tuesday last after a week's visit with Miss Beryl Muckle.

St. Helens vs. Albina Colts. At the ball ground Sunday. A good game is assured.

ANOTHER FOR ST. HELENS

The Cathlamet nine fell an easy victim to the St. Helens ball toppers last Sunday, losing out by a score of 7 to 3. The lower river boys had strengthened up little with talent from the metropolis, and were pretty sure of defeating the locals, but they really had no chance at all. Once again the St. Helens nine was made up altogether of local boys, and the game was far more interesting and better played than the last one when considerable hired help was present. The old reliable Campbell is the only outside player who ever helped this nine win a victory. Pete Brakke was in the box with Morton receiving, and we don't need any better battery for any game than they make. Following is the score in detail:

And said Water Superintendent be and he is hereby instructed to see that the Houlton water users are fully advised of this order, and that he take vigorous means to inform himself of any disobedience thereof. ### FOR JULY 1910

When the Ballinger trial is ended, And the jury has said what it thinks; When the case has been made and defended With the wonted political winks— We shall smile and gade, we shall need to

That feel it as well had been dropped, And the Guggenheim crowd will proceed to Resume where it was when it stopped.

The signs shall come down in this timber, And the patents shall tie up the coal. The law will get flabby and limber, And the trusts will do well on the whole.

It always turns out in that manner, Although we may blush to confess it, And we do not regard it a banner Achievement, exactly, to guess it.

July is a tribute to Caesar. One day, with some other insurgents, he talked by the Pillar of Pompey on things of political urgency. He was just on the point of explaining the key to some government riddle when a party of regulars jumped him and cut him in two in the middle.

There were Decius Brutus, the speaker, and Cassius, boss of the Senate, together with others insistent upon some political tenet, "The party forever!" they shouted, and what with that terrible slasher Servilius Casca great Caesar as well had been run through a hash.

At any rate Antony found him cut up into fodder for fishes, and begged this request of the Romans' who granted the least of his wishes. And thus it has happened and shall be so long as the Tiber runs by the Pillar of Pompey that Caesar shall live in the name of July.

The Fourth shall return to discover Us waiting in battle array. And what with one thing and another Regretting we won, anyway.

The cannon shall boom, and the scramble For things on the medicine shelves Shall warn inexperienced countries Aspiring to freedom themselves.

The dynamite cap and the rocket shall remind us of tyrants thwarted, and the valiant forerunner shall turn in his coffin to see what he started. The eagle shall mount on his pinions and circle the North and the South, and the raptid orator stand on the platform and shoot off his month.

This latter, however, is harmless in a strict pathological way, but remains notwithstanding an evil we must in due season ally. Alas, how deficient is nature that might lay this rest on the shelf with ruling that shooting his month off, he gave the lockjaw to himself.

This tetanus, we are quite certain, has good and defensible uses, and all of its manifestations thus far have been only abuses. The idea, as we regard it is not that it should be the cause of any more serious matter than locking the arator's jaws.

You know that we never hear of it except on the Fourth of July, and whenever some innocent gets it we forever are wondering why. Well, this is the fact of the matter, and by jove we are willing to bet it turns out in the long run that no one but a lot of old wind-jammers get it.

However, be that as it may be. And get whom the tetanus will. The jubilant youth of the nation Will resume with its shooting to kill.

The safe and the same celebration Will suit us who are not so skittish, But the youngsters have got to do something To show what we did to the British.

There never was anything safe in the way the forefathers attacked them, and as for the saner attainments, the old fellows seem to have lacked them. They simply cast fear to the bowwows and waded into the affray, and I a boy does not think himself worthy if he can't shoot himself any way.

At any rate Jeffries and Johnson will grow like a couple of poodles and observe independence with beating the hair off their mutual noddies. They'll alternate making the other levitation howl for his mother, and if the country at random is lucky they'll manage to kill one another.

It's only a plan to make money, deserving the strictest of strictures, for what they will have is a race war, dividing what's made on the pictures. We've been pretty mad in this country for dollars, and power, and places; but this is the first time we've trafficked upon the abyss between races.
